Artists Against AIDS

The 8th Annual Artists Against AIDS Program 2000

Thanks

Thank you for your interest in the 8th annual Artists Against AIDS benefit exhibition and sale. As in years past, the beneficiary of this event is the Greater Community AIDS Project, a local non-profit United Way agency dedicated to HIV/AIDS education, and to providing support services, such as rent/utility subsidies, transportation, temporary housing, and support referral services. Your donations also help support Champaign House, which provides transitional housing for those with HIV/AIDS. (For more information about GCAP, please call GCAP.)

This year's event was well-supported by our local business community, and the participation from over 180 local artists was even greater than in years past. Many, many thanks are extended to all volunteers, sponsors, and participating artists. The support of the corporate sponsors listed on the facing page is very much appreciated, especially that of Jeff Mellander and Marty Johnson of Precision Graphics, who generously donated this exhibition space.

Super gratitudes go out to all of the installation crew, who performed miracles for this exhibition: Leah Sullivan, Mary-Margaret Mitchell, Jon Proctor, Shannon Batman, Terry Hamrick, Jason Pitzl, Peggy Purkhosrow, Scott Landells, Jon Atwater, Heidi Kellner, Elissa, Eric Johnson, Dave Hayashida, Cynthia Chiang, Jessica Kirschbaum, Linda Linn, William Montague, and last but not least, the clean-up crew from "An Art Show." We must also thank the 'oh-so-essential' number of people who have had their precious hands in making it all possible: Al Usellman, Jim Sinclair, Georgia King, Donna Buzicky, Trent Shephard, Ron Short, and David Hodges. Last but for certainly not to be forgotten, Jon Stevens, local hero, for making this event as big and beautiful as it was when entrusted to us.

Please enjoy yourselves, and don't hesitate to ask volunteers if you have any questions. If you care to receive info about next year's show, please add your name to the AAA mailing list located on the cashier tables.

VOLUNTEERS are still needed for the remainder of this show . . . please visit the volunteer sign-up table for a list of available times and positions.

Thanks again for your support.
